Dear Excellency,

I hope that this letter finds you well. You will recall sometime back that we spoke about your wife's interest in reading Mr Lee Kuan Yew's memoirs. She preferred to read the books in English. In this regard, I am pleased to enclose two volumes of Mr Lee's memoirs in English. I apologize for the delay but the books ran out of stock in Singapore! I had to wait for this new reprint. Ching and I hope that we will be able to welcome you both at our National Day Reception on 6 August at the Raffles.

Yours sincerely,

KEVIN CHEOK
