5.3- The 24th International AIDS Conference Presented by H.E. Tia Phalla, Deputy Chair of NAA

- The goals were to present evidence, learning from HIV and CoVID-19 and Gap of implementation and moving evidence to implementation and support the new generation,
- AIDS is still at risks due to HIV reduction is very slow, less than 3 times of expectation,
- Resource availability for HIV in low and middle-income countries are below the target,
- There is new injectable ARV for every 2 months ( Cabotegravir ),
- Use DoxyPEP 200mg, within 72 hours after sex to prevent STI,
- CoVID-19 learning from HIV/AIDS but HIV/AIDS also learning from CoVID-19, ( HIV vaccine should learn from CoVID-19 vaccine ),
- The gaps are: declining funding support ( austerity instead of investment ), gender inequality, ART compliance, technology monopoly, available and accessible of new prevention and treatment methods etc,
- Domestic fund, PEPFAR, GFATM should be coordinate to secure funding support, focusing on precision in public health,
- It is hard to end AIDS by 2030,
- Botswana already achieves 95-95-95 targets ( 95-98-98 )
- Prof. Anthony Fauci director of NIH/USA expects HIV vaccine in 2024,

5.4- Conclusion and Recommendation by H.E. Chair

- From now on, the meeting presentation have to be uploaded in the NAA website,
- Encourage NAA members at the national and provincial level to have and implement work plan specially to monitor the use of 80 million riels,
- Continue requesting MoJ to advice on the meaning either Anukrit or decision,

- Re-examines 5-year achievements, the positive results should be highlighted,
- Continue working with CRC to spread and share HIV/AIDS messages developed, especially to focus on the PMTCT,
- The NSP VI to end AIDS in Cambodia in 2025 must be continued to be prepared to show NAA ownership and leadership,
- The papers and documents for website and Facebook broadcasting are responsible by cabinet and NAA secretariat,
- The second NAA meeting is going to organized in Preah Sihanouk province, therefore the organizing committee should be in place and function.

The meeting ended by 11:30 on the same day.
